

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Problems Proposed April 9, 1870.

1. Construct the circle whose circumference passes through two fixed points A and B, and which cuts a given straight line CD at a given angle.
2. The surface of a hill slopes uniformly due south, making an angle of 5° with a horizontal plane. An excavation for a railroad is to be made into the side hill, the line of the road running N. 75° W., and rising 1 foot in 100. Find the amount of the excavation to a point 1000 feet from where the central line of the base of the excavation first meets the hill side, the slope being 1 to 1, and the breadth of the base of the excavation 25 feet.
3. Trace the curves whose equations are $(x^2 + y^2)^2 = 20(x^2 - y^2)$, and $x^2 y^2 = 16$. Find their points of intersection, real and imaginary.
4. Trace the curves whose polar equations are

$$r = 1 + \frac{1}{\theta}, \quad r = \theta \sin \theta, \quad r^2 + \theta^2 = 1, \quad \sin r = \theta.$$

5. Construct the axis and directrix of a parabola whose focus is at a given point A, and which touches two given lines BC, and DE.

FRESHMAN CLASS, '73.

1. Let ABCD be any quadrilateral, and EFG be a triangle such that EF = the diagonal AC, and FG = BD, and the angle EFG is equal to the angle contained by AC and BD, then will the area of ABCD be equal to the area of EFG.
2. Divide a given line AB into two parts AC and BC, such that $AC^2 + BC^2$ shall be equal to a given arc.
3. If the trapezoid ABCD be circumscribed to a circle, and if a line EF be drawn through the center of a circle parallel to the two bases AB and CD of the trapezoid, and cutting AD and BC in E and F, then will EF be equal to one-fourth of the perimeter of ABCD.
4. Let ABC and ADE be two circles touching each other in A, and let a line BDE touch the first circle at B, and cut the second at D and E. If the chord AB, produced if necessary, cuts the circle ADE in F, then will the arcs FD and FE be equal to each other.
5. Having given the two foci of an ellipse and a tangent line, find the point of contact of the ellipse with that tangent.
6. Having given a triangle, and a point within it, construct the points of tangency of an ellipse that shall be inscribed in the triangle, and have the given point for a focus.

THE YALE BANNER,

Vol. XXVIII. No. 1.

New Haven:
HOGGSON & ROBINSON, PRINTERS.
1871.

COLLEGE GREEN IN 1761.*

COLLEGE GREEN IN 1871.

* This represents the buildings now known as the Athenaeum and South Middle, but formerly as "Connecticut Hall" and the "College Chapel." This cut is taken by permission from "Lyman Beecher's Autobiography," (Harper & Bros., N. Y.) Another copy of this old engraving, (which is in our possession), appeared in the Lit. of January, '45 and January '47.

SALUTATORY.

THE BANNER IS OUT. The old governor "hangs out his banner on the outer" cover, and smiles a placid greeting to his children. His serenity is unruffled by the high honor to which he has attained; his curly wig lies as smoothly, and his inevitable old legs stand as immovably as ever. He shakes his standard lovingly toward his friends, defiantly at his enemies, gracefully over all. "Long may it wave."

As he surveys mankind from his commanding position, he cannot fail to notice the large number of new comers who have made their appearance since last he took an observation from the cover of the July Lit.

After the manner of the ancient editors of this periodical, we salute you, O Freshman!

We dare give you no advice. Once we were great, "but what a fall was there, my countrymen." Once in freshmanic majesty, we walked on Chapel Street, and flaunted our Delta Kappa pin. Then we were great, and were conscious of our dignity. Then we fondly dreamed that increasing years would give us increasing importance. Alas! how false the hope. Never again were we to know the greatness of which humanity is capable; never again to stand on the proud eminence of a perfect satisfaction with ourselves and our position.

Ill then would it become us now, to advise these "monarchs of all they survey," and scornfully would our advice be passed by.

But we may venture to hope that you, O Freshman! will not disdain the greeting which we would put in the mouth of the amiable gentleman on our front cover.

"Bless you, my children, bless you!"

The Berkeley Association was formed in the fall term, 1869, for the purpose of uniting the students of the various departments, who have been in the habit of attending the Episcopal Church, in a weekly service and in mission work in the city. A service is held upon each Friday Evening during the term, in the Recitation Room, in the north end of the Cabinet Building. All Saint's Day, Nov. 1st, is observed as the anniversary of the association. The exercises were held in 1870, in Trinity Chapel, and the sermon was preached by the Right Rev. John Williams, D.D., Bishop of Connecticut. The membership of the association embraces all who choose to attend and support the services.

SALUTATORY.

THE BANNER salutes you. It is out at last, and we hope is in nowise inferior to any of its predecessors.

It is, you will observe, adorned by numerous cuts. Of these, we only refer you to "Our Alma Mater," presiding genius of mind and muscle.

THE BANNER directs you not only to the rooms of your fellow-students, but also to the stores of your fellow-townsmen. May you extend your visits to both—your patronage to the latter.

Greeting you, kind patrons all, we can only beg you to scan our pages with a friendly eye.

Committee to secure a Course of Sermons.

JOHNES, PETERS, VAN BUREN, of '73.

The Berkeley Association was formed in the fall term, 1869, for the purpose of uniting the students of the various departments, who have been in the habit of attending the Episcopal Church, in a weekly service and in mission work in the city. A service is held upon each Friday evening during the term, in the Recitation Room, in the north end of the Cabinet Building. All Saint's Day, Nov. 1st, is observed as the anniversary of the Association. The exercises were held in 1870 in Trinity Chapel, and the sermon was preached by the Right Rev. John Williams, D.D., Bishop of Connecticut. The membership of the Association embraces all who choose to attend and support the services.

SALUTATORY.

THE BANNER comes to you this year earlier than usual, but we anticipate it will not, for this, be less welcome. We have felt it was much needed, and have, therefore, hastened its appearance, although feeling that there are some errors which a hurried compilation necessitates.

THE BANNER directs you to the rooms of each other ; it points you to those who appreciate your custom, and, we must add (the only fault this publication possesses), it is a guide for them to find you. Our advertisers have extended their patronage to us, and we hope that you will extend yours to them.

The field which the BANNER now occupies, requires an early publication, and we advise for the future that the BANNER assume its old form, that of a paper.

The Berkeley Association was formed in the fall term, 1869, for the purpose of uniting the students of the various departments, who have been in the habit of attending the Episcopal Church, in a weekly service and in mission work in the city. A service is held upon each Friday evening during the term, in the Recitation Room, in the north end of the Cabinet Building. All Saints' Day, Nov. 1st, is observed as the anniversary of the Association. The exercises were held in 1872 in Trinity Church, and the sermon was preached by Prof. Sumner. The membership of the Association embraces all who choose to attend and support the services.

The regular course in the department preparatory to Yale College occupies three years, but full opportunity is allowed to those who can prepare more rapidly.

There are special courses arranged for those who are to enter the Scientific School, and for those who are to follow business pursuits.

Parents will find in the instruction given in Military Drilling, Gymnastics, &c., and in the ample grounds for out-door games, under careful supervision, just the advantages for physical training and vigor which boys in cities need.

Arrangements are made for a class of students who may wish to attend the recitations without being subject to the military drill and uniform; and for a
